Capt. Reith Testifies He Was Asked $10,000 for Promotion—
Mayor Roasts District Attorney.

New York, Sept. 19.—Winfield R. Sheehan, secretary of Police Commissioner Waldo, was associated with a man "supposed to be getting graft."

This testimony was given by D. J. Kelleher, a private detective, to the Aldermanic committee investigating an affidavit made by Police Captain John T. Reith that $10,000 had been demanded of him as the price of promotion to a captaincy during Commissioner Bingham's administration.

Kelleher said he had been assigned in December last by Alfred G. Johnson, the under sheriff whom Reith accuses in his affidavit of having demanded $10,000 from him, to follow a lawyer named Norton. This man, by "common rumor," he said, was supposed to be collecting police graft from his office at 113 Broadway.

He trailed Norton, testified, to Sheehan's house. Sheehan discovered him there, he said, and kept him locked in while he sent for two detectives, but he was not arrested. Norton, he said, collapsed.

A few days later, Kelleher testified, he met Sheehan by appointment and the commissioner's secretary said to him, "What have you got on me?"

"I told him," said the witness, "that I had nothing on him, but that I had something on George C. Norton, and that I had been sent to find out if Norton ever met Sheehan, and that I had found that out and that my job was done. I told Sheehan that Norton was supposed to be getting graft. He told me then he should be arrested. I stated that was a police job and not mine."

"Did Sheehan ask you you were working for?" asked Emory R. Buckner, counsel for the committee.

"I said 'yes,'" replied Kelleher, "I thought I was working for Al Johnson."

"What did he say?"

"Sheehan said: 'That will be all right, we'll get him,'" replied the detective.

Police Captain Bernard J. Kelleher, a brother of the witness, testified that Commissioner Waldo had said to him last June:

"I am very sorry that a member of your family should have had one of my men under surveillance."

The Kellehers were preceded on the stand by Johnson, who denied that he had ever demanded money from Reith.

"I saw him a couple of times," said Johnson, "and then he said he knew the job could be bought and that he had the money to pay. I told him he was a fool if he thought he could buy General Bingham. He stuck to me and came to see me again and again and again until I was sick of his face and of him, and I told him to get out of my sight and to keep out."

Johnson admitted that he had had Norton investigated "out of curiosity," but he had stopped without learning "anything important."

Captain Reith's testimony was in the main an elaboration of the already published charges made in his affidavit, which was produced at the beginning of the day's proceedings by Commissioner Waldo.

Reith swore he had "received word," that Johnson wanted to see him, and that, upon visiting him, Johnson informed him that his name was about to be certified for promotion to Commissioner Bingham. Johnson then took him, he said, to see Thomas J. Hasset, former secretary to Mayor McClellan, as the man who could "do the business" for him.

"Hasset asked me some questions," testified the witness, "and later I got word to call at the home of Johnson. I went there and Johnson told me that he had done all he could for me, and that I would have to put up $10,000."

Upon failing to put up the money, Reith said, he was passed over on the eligibility list. He went to Commissioner Bingham to find out why, he said, and was told by him that he had "the right to promote whom he pleased, and that when he was ready to promote him he would."

Reith absolved Commissioner Bingham from any part in the alleged practice of selling promotions.

Reith said he would have been willing to have paid $10,000 for promotion.

"The job was not worth it," he declared, "but you don't have to work nights. You can get plenty of sleep."

General Bingham testified that he had not promoted Reith "simply because he would not make a good Police Captain."

Harry Horowitz, alias "Gyp the Blood," and Louis Rosenwald, alias "Lefty Louie," charged with being two of the four men who fired the shots that ended the life of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, entered pleas of not guilty to indictments of murder in the first degree when arraigned before Supreme Court Justice Goff yesterday.

The pleas were made through their attorneys. The accused men were remanded pending the naming of a date for their trial.

Acting District Attorney Moss continued the examination of witnesses at the secret John Doe inquiry to determine whether the police suppressed any incriminating letters reported to have been found in "Gyp" and "Lefty's" flat. He refused to say what progress had been made.

Mayor Gaynor has sent a letter to Commissioner Waldo congratulating him upon the arrest of all the persons charged with complicity in the Rosenthal murder, and attacking "the District Attorney's office."

"The cruel accusation, emanating, like all the principal falsehoods in this case, from the District Attorney's office, that the police designedly invented and entered these false numbers on the blotter to prevent the capture of the motor car, is baseless in the sight of every sensible man," wrote the mayor.

"The period of clamor and falsehood seems now to be passing, and the whole community is beginning to see how basely they have been imposed upon by the invented falsehoods which have been published."

PURE FOOD LAWS URGED BY WILSON A VITAL ISSUE

Washington, Sept. 19.—The Democratic National committee is to have a pure food annex. Strictly speaking, this unique campaign feature is to be called the "Pure Food Department of the Democratic National Committee."

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, who has agreed to take charge of it and direct it in a general way, as well as his speaking engagements will permit, left last night for New York to consult with the officials of the national committee. He took with him a copy of a pamphlet he had written on pure food legislation, in which he denies that either Taft or Roosevelt is in sympathy with the case, and asserts that the people should elect Wilson and Marshall if they want this movement to go forward. This statement is approved by the committee officials and by Woodrow Wilson. Three hundred thousand copies will be printed for general distribution.

The first gun in the opening of this campaign to get the pure food folk into line for the Democratic ticket appears to have been the speech delivered by Woodrow Wilson, candidate for president, at Sioux City, when he came out strong for Dr. Wiley and against the Remsen Board of Referee Chemists. The next shot will be fired by Dr. Wiley himself in Indiana week after next, when he will "open up" on Colonel Roosevelt.

AUSTRALIA TAKES ACTION AGAINST BEEF COMBINE

Melbourne, Australia, Sept. 19.—Fearing the high cost of living, the legislative council today passed a resolution to the effect that it is desirable that the government take action to prevent the American beef combine or its agents from obtaining a foothold in the commonwealth and also requesting the government to consult with the Australian states with a view to the similar passing of necessary legislation to that end.

CAN'T STOP MOONSHINING.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—"It is impossible to wipe out the moonshine whiskey in the south," said B. H. Howard, of Louisville, secretary of the National Federation of Internal Revenue Storekeepers and Dealers, at the federation's convention. Two thousand illicit distilleries were broken up by revenue officers in the south last year.

HELEN GRAY IS ARRESTED

Washington, Sept. 19.—Helen Gray an investigator, whose work created a scene upon the floor in which she was charged with being a woman lobbyist was arrested today on a warrant sworn out by the Indian bureau charging concealment of public records.

Mrs. Gray was arraigned before a United States Commissioner and released upon $1000 bond for trial next Tuesday. The specific complaint is that she concealed records of the Crow Indians. Mrs. Gray maintained that she took the records from the Indian office with the knowledge of former Commissioner Valentine and they are now in possession of the department of justice.

PAYS MGR. FENBERG FINE COMPLIMENT

A $100 pony outfit was given away from the stage of the Orpheum theatre at Canton last evening, Manager George Fenberg acting as master of ceremonies. The contest was conducted by sight of the leading business men of Canton.

The Canton News-Democrat pays Manager Fenberg an excellent compliment for his managerial success in operating his theatre all summer, stating among other things that it had been well patronized and that the best of attractions had been shown and that the rule had been crowded house at every performance, due to the hustling abilities of Mr. Fenberg in securing the best bills obtainable.

The Canton Orpheum is one of a chain of theatres operated by Mr. O. G. Murray, lessee of the Orpheum Arcade theatre in this city, which Mr. Fenberg formerly managed and where he was a great favorite with Orpheum patrons.

ELEVATOR OUT OF COMMISSION FOR SHORT TIME

"You were fortunate indeed if your business did not require your presence on the ninth floor of the Trust building Thursday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock."

For a time, both elevators in the building were out of commission at the same time and though efforts were made to remedy the trouble, it was unfruitful and the cars were idle. People whose business could not wait were compelled to climb the stairs to the offices where their business called them.

It's a long, hard climb to the eighth or ninth floor. If you don't believe it, try it some time.

Columbus, O., Sept. 19.—Authority to issue $750,000 capital stock and $2,000,000 bonds was refused today to the Ohio River and Northern Railway company by the state public utilities commission. The new company wanted to use the money derived from the sale of the bonds for the building of 21 miles of railway from Lisbon to East Liverpool, Wellsville and to Midland, Pa.

Carter as chief of police, will be carried to the circuit court at once, according to Thomas E. Powell, one of Mayor Karb's attorneys. Mr. Powell and City Solicitor Boiin appeared before Judge Dillon today and gave notice of appeal and asked the court to fix the amount of the appeal bond. Judge Dillon left the matter in the hands of counsel.

This order was issued following an investigation into complaints made by Wooster manufacturers that materials received over one road could not be transferred to the other road and thence to their place of business.

WILSON IS GREETED BY THOUSANDS

Governor in Good Voice and Splendid Physical Condition

DISCUSSES THE TARIFF

Favors Immediate Reduction Which Would Bring More Revenue to Government.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 19.—Governor Woodrow Wilson's Auditorium meeting in St. Paul last night was by far the biggest of the campaign.

The seating capacity is exactly 12,000, and it was estimated 15,000 were in the hall. Many thousands were turned away. The Governor was in good voice and splendid physical condition considering the hard work of the day.

For the first time in the campaign he explained his attitude toward free trade, saying that he was not for the extreme of that policy, but for an intelligent reduction of the tariff that would bring more revenue to the government. Under an exorbitantly high tariff, he said, imports were reduced to a minimum. Under a low tariff they would increase and the revenue to the government would advance in proportion.

The Governor said in part: "Any man who resorts to the speeches of Mr. Blaine and of Mr. McKinley for the arguments in favor of protection in the year 1912 has been, like Rip Van Winkle, asleep since those speeches were made, because the circumstances upon which those gentlemen relied for their arguments have absolutely disappeared from America."

"The argument that Blaine and McKinley used for the tariff were a free trade argument. You may not believe it, but I'll tell you in what sense it was a free trade argument."

"The government of the United States was set up in order to prevent the states establishing protective tariffs against one another, and over an area of unprecedented extent, considering the industries that have been set up in it from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Canadian to the Mexican border, we have preserved an area of absolute free trade, and Blaine and McKinley relied upon that circumstance to prove that the protective tariff was not detrimental to the American consumer, because they said within this vast area of domestic competition the laws of competition govern the processes of price."

"So long as there was domestic competition there was neither monopoly nor an excessively high cost of living in America."

"I don't mean that we are not going to have tariff duties. I am not one of those men who have been kept awake by the free trade bogey, because since I ceased to be a child I have ceased to be afraid of bogies."

"Nobody can scare my mind except

CLUBS TO MARCH AT COLUMBUS CAMPAIGN OPENING TOMORROW

Columbus, O., Sept. 19.—Although the original plans contemplated no parade at the opening of the Democratic state campaign tomorrow, yet Chairman W. L. Finley finds himself confronted with what might be termed an insurrection, the participants being those who desire to march in honor of Governor Woodrow Wilson and Congressman James M. Cox.

For the past 48 hours Chairman Finley has been besieged with requests for the formation of a parade, and it is now accepted that there will be one.

It will be headed by the two local Democratic organizations, the Jefferson and Franklin County clubs, and it is expected there will be a large detachment made up of the Ohio State University students. Visiting organizations from surrounding cities will be given places in the line.

The Licking County Democratic club is among those that are coming with bands.

Governor Wilson's managers at Chicago today sent word that he would arrive in this city Friday at 11:02 a. m., coming from Toledo via the Ohio Central Line.

There will be demonstrations along the route at Kenton and other points, including Bowling Green, Marysville and Findlay, where short stops will be made. Chairman Finley will go to Toledo to act as personal escort to the presidential candidate.

At the evening meeting the overflow will be addressed by Senator Thomas P. Gore of Oklahoma, and Mayor Newton D. Baker of Cleveland, United States Senator Atlee Pomerene being the selected chairman.

The hall meeting will have Governor Judson Harmon as chairman, and he will be supported by the following array of vice presidents:

Stanley Bowdle, Cincinnati; Alfred G. Allen, Cincinnati; Warren Gard, Hamilton; J. Henry Goeke, Wapakoneta; T. T. Ansberry, Defiance; D. K. Hempstead, Wilmington; J. D. Post, Washington C. H.; W. W. INCENDIARIES FIRE COAL TIPPLE CAUSING LOSS TO CARBON COMPANY OF $10,000

Bingham, Utah, Sept. 19.—An army of miners, fortified and determined, held undisputed possession of the copper, lead and silver mines of Bingham today.

The miners want a further 25 per cent increase in pay and recognition of their union. The army, thousands strong, has dug breastworks, strengthened its picket lines and worked out a rough form of military discipline.

Governor Spry has been asked to urge the strikers to surrender the mines, give up their arms and wait in patience the success or failure of the mine managers' efforts to figure out means by which their demands can be granted.

There was much promiscuous firing from the pits opposite the Utah copper mine this morning. About 1000 men were entrenched there. George W. Dwyer, superintendent of the Utah copper mine, and some of the bookkeepers, went to the mine but were not molested. None of the property of the company was damaged.

Deputy sheriffs are being sent in as fast as they can be recruited. It was thought that the sheriff's force would number 250 men this afternoon and it was planned to make a flank attack on the rifle pits as soon as sufficient force could be mustered to drive the strikers down the mountain into a canyon.

Earlier in the day, while armed strike pickets stood guard at the approaches of the various properties, firing shots into the air, one of their number was wounded by Theodore Schweitzer, a deputy.

Only one copper mine here, the Utah Apex Mining Company, continued operations today. The company signed a contract with the miners a few days ago. The Great Utah Copper Mine, the Utah Consolidated, United States, Bingham-New Haven, the Ohio Copper, Bingham Mines and a score of lesser mines, the Bingham & Garfield railway and the ore traffic on the Copper Belt branch of the Rio Grande railroad were closed tightly.

Four thousand men, mostly foreigners, are idle, and almost every idle man bore a weapon of some sort.

NO PROPERTY DAMAGED

Governor Spry Asked to Intercede
—4,000 Men Idle at Bingham, Utah.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 19.—Making their way through a line of sentries, incendiaries early today poured oil on the tipple of the Carbon Coal company at the head of Carbon creek in Kanawha county and fired the building. The alarm was given but before the soldiers could extinguish the flames the tipple had been destroyed with a loss of $10,000.

Attempts have been made to operate the mine in defiance of the striking miners who are in the heart of the martial law district.

Major James I. Pratt, commanding the militia, and Major Thomas Davis arrived at the scene of the fire later in the day with bloodhounds. The soldiers in that section divided into small parties and with the dogs are hunting the incendiaries in the mountains.

Governor Glasscock's commission investigating conditions in the strike country will hear the statement of D. C. Kennedy, secretary of the Kanawha coal operators association this afternoon. Kennedy is looked upon as one of the company's most important witnesses as he was for a number of years president of District No. 17, U. M. W. of A.

ITALIANS ARE VICTORIOUS IN TURKISH BATTLE

Rome, Sept. 19.—The most sanguinary movement of the war in Tripoli was fought yesterday near Derna, a town on the Mediterranean coast, 140 miles northeast of Benghazi.

The Italians lost 61 men and 113 wounded. The Turks and Arabs left more than 500 dead on the field. Forty-one prisoners, including an Arab chief, fell into the hands of the Italians.

The battle opened at daybreak when a force of Turks and Arabs surprised and attacked the Italian lines. The fight raged for four hours, but the superior Italian artillery, supplemented by brilliant bayonet charges, won the day and the Musselmans fled in disorder.

INSTALLING NEW CENTRIFUGAL PUMP

Workmen were engaged Thursday making connections at the water works plant to place in commission the new centrifugal pump and clear water basin.

This basin was constructed a year ago last summer and has a capacity of many thousand gallons of water. The centrifugal pump was purchased a few weeks ago and is used to force the water into the basin.

This tank is so constructed that it may be used for chemical filtration of water if it is so desired.

An attachment for phonographs by which a violin can be connected with a record and made to produce music has been invented by a Wisconsin man.

BILIOUSNESS, GAS, HEADACHE, MEAN CONSTIPATED BOWELS

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" cleanses your stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels of sour bile, gases, decaying food and clogged-up waste, no griping.

A harmless cure for sick headache, for biliousness, for a sour, gassy, disordered stomach, for constipation, indigestion, coated tongue, salivaceous, pimple-like eruptions, Syrup of Figs. For the cause of all these troubles lies in a torpid liver and sluggish condition of your thirty feet of bowels.

A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs to-night means all poisonous waste matter, the undigested, fermenting food and sour bile, gently moved on and out of your system by morning, without griping, nausea or weakness. It means a cheery day tomorrow—many bright days thereafter.

Please don't think of gentle, effective Syrup of Figs as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself, for the luscious figs, senna and aromatics can not injure anyone.

This remarkable fruit preparation is a wonderful stomach, liver and bowel cleanser, regulator and tonic, the safest and most positive ever devised.

The day of violent purgatives, such as calomel, pills, salts and castor oil is past. They were all wrong. You got relief, but at what a cost! They acted by flooding the bowels with fluids, but these fluids were digestive juices. Syrup of Figs embodies only harmless laxatives which act in a natural way. It does what right food would do—what eating lots of fruit and what plenty of exercise will do for the liver, stomach and bowels.

Be sure you get the old reliable and genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by The California Fig Syrup Company. Hand back, with scorn, any Fig Syrup imitation recommended as "just as good."

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE.

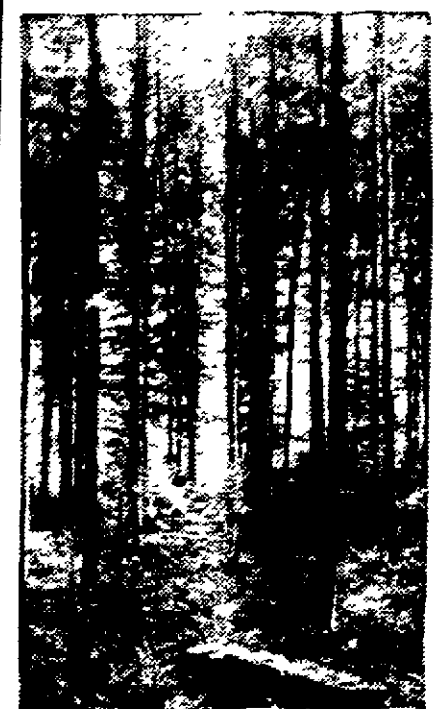

Timber Crop is of Slow Growth, but it Pays to Cultivate it.

In order to get a crop of potatoes we plant and cultivate; if we want the best orchard we spray and prune, but we let nature plant and care for the wood lot, and then we wonder why that woodlot does not pay.

The timber crop can be improved by care for the same reasons that other crops can be improved.

Although it takes longer to raise this crop than any other, it can be raised on land otherwise unprofitable or idle.

Such a crop will in the end yield a comfortable bank account, and the value of the wood lot to the farm is greater than the sale value of the crop in the convenience and the saving of money by having various wood products at hand, in protecting the buildings and fields from wind and in the beauty of the farm. The time is coming when thrifty young timber not yet large enough to cut will have a good sale value.

STAND OF HARD WOOD IMPROVED BY PROPER CARE.

The care of this crop causes little expense, and the wood lot offers one means of solving the problem of how to keep good farm help profitably employed all the year.

The three principal aims in caring for the wood lot should be to keep the ground thoroughly covered with trees, to have only the best possible trees and to make them grow rapidly.

In order to make timber grow fast care should be taken in choosing the kinds of trees to raise, the soil should be kept moist and mellow by protecting the leaf mulch, and the best trees should be given a fair amount of light by making improvement cuttings.

Methods of starting new trees either to fill openings now in the woods or to replace timber to be harvested are as follows: By sprouts, by seed falling from neighboring trees, by sowing seed broadcast and by planting trees or seed. —Cornell (N. Y.) Reading Course Lesson For Farm.

Cement in Tree Cavities.

If your orchard trees have decayed portions in them clean out the rotted wood, then bore diagonally into the wood in different directions from the bottom of the hole in order that the filling may hold. Fill the cavity with the following cement compound: Portland cement, one pound; sand, two pounds; clinders, two pounds. Pack the cement in well and seal all around the filling with a tar mixture. Leave no projections beyond the plane of the bark and immediately the wood ring and the bark will begin to form over the patch, and the tree will ultimately be as good as new. The entire heart of the tree may be cleared out and filled in this way and the tree will continue to flourish. —Farm Progress.

Whose advice do you follow? Not that of the poorest farmer in the neighborhood surely. Do you seek the advice of the best and most successful? Do you watch such farmers? There is a reason why one man gets along better than another. Look out for the reason. Find it and practice it if you can. —Kansas Farmer.

DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE ON TRUSTS AND TARIFF REVISION DOWNWARD

There is a perfectly clear cut issue on the Trusts between the Democrats and both varieties of Republicans. Both sorts of Republicans, and such spokesmen for the big Trusts as Gary and Perkins, are in favor of a Federal Incorporation law, or a law under which the national government would license corporations to become Trusts, together with an official or a commission to watch all the big corporations and tell them what they may do, with the possibility of being authorized to determine prices. There is no difference except in some details between the regular Republicans, the Progressives and the Trust magnates.

The statement that the Trusts oppose Federal regulation and want to keep the regulation entirely in the hands of the states is absurdly untrue. The great industrial corporations, like the Steel Trust, Tobacco Trust, Harvester Trust, Standard Oil Company and big insurance companies, wish to wipe out state lines and establish Federal regulation solely. One reason for this is that it is simpler to be responsible to one government than it is to forty-eight, and an additional reason is that the Trusts feel tolerably certain of a considerable measure of influence in Washington, and they know that in many of the states they have no chance whatever of controlling the governments.

But the state lines exist, and the Democratic party is determined to defend them. The Democratic party objects to any interference with private business beyond what is absolutely necessary for the protection of the community. It believes in the open field and no favor.

The Democratic party believes that a proper effort has not been made since the Civil War for a wise revision of the tariff downward so that the robbery of the American consumer for the benefit of the Trust magnates shall cease, and so that whatever degree of protection that is afforded by a tariff for revenue shall be honest protection.

In addition to gradual tariff revision downward, as urged by Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic party proposes to supplement the Sherman law by further legislation to prevent combinations and keep the field open to competitors. The Democratic party is the only one whose remedy for Trusts is in harmony with the constitution and the political traditions and habits of the country. It is the only party which would keep the Federal Government within its proper constitutional field, and keep the door of opportunity open to small as well as great business.

This wise and safe policy is so practical and is in such demand by the intelligent reform element of the country that it cannot be side-tracked by the buncombe cry of Free Trade in this campaign of Free Thought.

THE DINNER HORN

When I was young and full of vim I labored in my father's field, and I have heard it said by him that no one could better wield; beneath my care the pumpkins thrived, tall grew the turnips and the corn; and when the noon hour had arrived, my father blew the dinner horn. Talk of the music of the spheres and all the sounds inspiring men! They would have jarred upon my ears, had they come floating to me then! I've heard great singers caracole through notes of joy and notes of scorn, but nothing ever stirred my soul like father's old tin dinner horn. I've heard the noble organ peal, and thought it heavenly and grand; I've heard march, waltz, Virginia reel, performed by Sousa's bully band; I've heard the great Caruso trot out songs sublime as e'er were born, but nothing ever hit the spot like father's old tin dinner horn. A crank on music, I have sailed, all o'er the world, to hear the best; the masters of all lands have failed to give my yearning spirit rest. When on their instruments they pound or beat or blow, my soul forlorn but reaches back to hear the so and of father's old tin dinner horn.

George Woodward Wickersham is the greatest trust-buster and corporation slayer that ever held the job of Attorney-General of the United States.

George Woodward Wickersham is a friend of the monopolists and eats from the hands of the octopus that are sucking the life-blood of the republic.

Here we have two quite different opinions of that eminent gentleman who heads the Uncle Sam's Department of Justice. The reader may take his choice, according to his lights. It's nothing to me.

Mr. Wickersham will receive the congratulations of his cabinet colleagues today on his fifty-fourth birthday anniversary. Pittsburg, the city of smoke and scandal and multi-placrats, was the birth-place of the Attorney-General, September 19, 1858.

The date. He was born with a silver spoon in his mouth—not golden, understand me, but just sterling silver; indicating that his parents were well-
to-do bourgeois, but not malefactors of great wealth.

Engineering was the goal of the Wickersham ambition, and he studied that profession at Lehigh University, South Bethlehem, Pa. Wisely he changed his goal to the law, and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania with the class of '80.

He hung out his shingle in Philadelphia, but in two years was removed to New York. His progress was rapid, and in 1887 he was admitted to the law firm of Strong & Cadwalder. In those days corporations and millionaires were the clients of this concern, and the Wickersham practice was with men to whom "God has entrusted the property interests of the world." A member of that firm, also, was Henry Taft, brother of the President, and this fact may have had something to do with the cabinet appointment given in 1909 to Samuel George Woodward Wickersham—for originally there was a Samuel attached to the front end of his name.

From "managing clerk", which was his first position with Strong, Cad-walder, Mr. Wickersham rose to full partnership, and an income of at least a hundred thousand dollars a year. In his latter years as a New York lawyer, before his country's welfare called him to Washington to "bust" the trusts whose legal servant
he had been, Mr. Wickersham was one of the most exclusive of personages.
He disliked publicity, and gave the cold shoulder to such reporters who were able to pass the body guard between the public entrance to the offices of Strong & Cadwalder and the inner holy of holies where Mr. Wickersham turned his intellect toward the solution of baffling legal problems.

He disliked publicity, seldom appeared in court, and would as soon have jumped from Brooklyn Bridge as talk for publication.

For eight years before he went to Washington Mr. Wickersham was general counsel for the Interborough Rapid Transit company of New York, a corporation which has for its moi-ty, "The public be pleased," and which, regardless of expense, makes it a rule to provide seats for all who patronize its subway and elevated lines. He was also counsel for the construction company which built the New York subway, and has been attorney for the Mexican National Railway company and other transportation and industrial corporations.

Religiously, the Attorney-General is an Episcopalian, having forsaken the Quaker Meeting House of his youth.
He is a student of literature, especially that of Spain, and can carry on a conversation in four or five languages.

Finally, he is responsible for the assertion that Dante is greater than Shakespeare.

German is about to experiment with the naval aeroplane.

ing her age she tries to cover it the electrical current of poorly bonded rail joints is the purpose of a device just invented by an ingenious

ROWELS SLUGGISH, STOMACH SOUR, GASSY, UPSET? CASCARETS GREAT!

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means your stomach is full of sour bile—your liver is torpid—your bowels constipated. It isn't your stomach's fault—it isn't indigestion—it's biliousness and constipation.

Try Cascarets; they immediately sweeten the stomach, remove the sour undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning.

10 Cents. Never grips or sickens.

REP. NATIONAL COM. DEFIED IN NEBRASKA

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 19.—Roosevelt electors on the Republican ticket in Nebraska refuse to comply with the demands of the Republican National committee that they resign.

When told that the National committee requests them to resign, answers of the electors were as follows: W. J. Broatch, Omaha: "I do not recognize the Republican National committee as the legal organization. I will not resign."

Allen Johnson, Fremont: "I was chosen by Nebraska voters and I intend to stick. They knew I was for Roosevelt when they elected me. That National committee bunch surely have their nerve."

George S. Florio, Pawnee City: "I have no intention of resigning. The committee is presumptuous."

A. V. Peace, Fairbury: "I shall not resign under any circumstances."

W. E. Thorn, Biadene: "I was elected by Nebraska voters, and when the Nebraskans want to get rid of me I will resign, but not for any bunch of National committeemen."

A. R. Davis, of Wayne, the sixth elector, is out of the city and could not be located.

The Task of Getting Dressed

"B" KILL my in bed and thought about getting dressed.

"Three rats," she said to herself, "and then wave my hair and put it carefully over them. Then a braid to be pinned on. It'll take three-quarters of an hour."

These pumps of mine are fearfully uncomfortable and I'd as lief walk on stilts as these heels."

"As for that new hipless model!" She sighed. "And it takes so long to get it laced right."

"And I've got to put in fresh sleeve frills and a neck frill. And they've got to be sewed, too. Pinning's no good."

"And that's only for breakfast. At eleven I've got to start for Dorothy's for that luncheon."

"That means do my hair over again. Those rats will be sure to be showing by that time and my braid would probably be over one ear."

"And oh, dear! I'm going to wear that new suit and the blouse that goes with it in the very dickens to fix."

"And I'll have to wear my black back pumps and those new gloves."

She groaned. "New gloves are awful to put on. And that big black hat of mine feels as if it's pulling every last hair out of my head by the time I get it anchored."

"Then to-night, there's that dance at the club."

"That means massage my face for half an hour. And do my hair all over, entirely and fix it up with that Greek-bendou. That's a job."

"And I've got to wear that lingerie gown, and that means run about four miles of ribbons in things. And it's more gloves and more tight shoes and stockings that each just right. I wonder where my tan is?"

"And when I come home, it's brush my hair and massage, some more, so tomorrow morning I'll look as if I have been through a knot hole. I really ought to massage my scalp, too, or I won't have a single hair of my own left."

She lay there thinking of the day's tasks in the way of dressing. And the longer she thought, the more she sighed, and the more dependent she grew. At last she rose, threw a negligee over her night dress and poked her head out the door.

"Beesle!" she called. "Beesle!"

A small girl came running from the next room.

"Tell mother I'm not feeling very well," she said to the child, "and I'm not going to get up to-day. And ask her please to 'phone Dorothy I won't be there for luncheon and then to call Jack and say I shall not go to the dance to-night."

Then she went back with a sigh of ecstasy and slipped into bed.

"Clothes," she commented, "are too much of a handicap. I'd rather never go anywhere than tog out the way one is supposed to nowadays."

Will Announce Decision Tuesday Whether Names of Candidates Can Appear On More Than One Party Ticket.

Columbus, Sept. 19.—The question of whether the name of a candidate can appear on more than one party ticket will be decided by Secretary of State Graves next Tuesday, when he will hear both sides of the controversy in Franklin county. Nearly every county in the state is interested in the opinion. Franklin county Progressives endorsed all of the Republican county candidates with the exception of recorder, and insist upon the placing of their names upon their ticket, as well as the Republican ticket.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Rules For Health Without Drugs.

Eat three simple meals a day and masticate each bite of food thoroughly. Give up snacks between meals and late suppers. Seventy per cent of the ill health people suffer from is due to neglect of this hygienic principle. Take exercise every day equivalent to three or four miles' walking, whatever the weather may be like. When outdoor exercise cannot for some good reason be obtained practice physical exercises twice a day. Breathe fresh air day and night. No one can keep well who sleeps with closed windows, lives in stuffy rooms and goes in fear of drafts. If you have got into the habit of irregular hours of sleep try the 10:30 bedtime plan as a routine measure. It cannot be invariably followed perhaps, but one late night could be made up for by an earlier bedtime the evening after. People who work hard and live strenuously need especially to make a good health resolution regarding their sleep. Even although you feel no ill effects for the time being from curtailing your sleep two or three hours a night, you will have to pay in the end. The human organism can do without sleep for a time, but it is like a man drawing on his capital. Nervous energy has its limits, like everything else. Practice moderation in all things. Regulate your amusements after a rational plan and stick to any resolutions you make.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Mr. Fox Was Sorry He Got The Cheese

ADDY began by saying to Jack and Evelyn: "I don't want you to think that I approve of either Mr. Fox or Mr. Crow in the story I am going to tell you. Far from it."

"Mr. Crow was a sad thief. He hadn't been very well brought up, and he didn't quite understand that it is very, very wrong to take things that don't belong to you."

"So when he saw a nice piece of cheese in a cottage window he wanted it very much. He waited until no one was about, and then he flew down and took the cheese."

"Off to the woods he flew, thinking no one had seen him, but in this he made a mistake. Mr. Fox had seen him. Mr. Fox was prowling about the chicken house, wondering if he could not carry off a nice fat hen for dinner."

"When Mr. Fox saw Mr. Crow sneak off with the piece of cheese he started right after him. Mr. Fox liked cheese too."

"When he reached Mr. Crow he found him perching on top of a tall pine tree with the cheese fondly balanced in his bill."

"My dear Mr. Crow, how are you? Mr. Fox began. 'I'm delighted to see you. You're looking splendid, but then you always do look well, and your high spirits seem never to leave you. I heard yesterday you were the life of that charming party in Farmer Gruff's cornfield.'"

"The crow looked so pleased that Mr. Fox went on:

"As you know, I never flatter, but I want to tell you how delighted I was with a little snatch of song I heard as I passed the cornfield. A more delicious voice than yours I have never heard. I wonder if you could repeat that little song for me? I had a little argument about it with Mr. Owl. He was sure the chorus ended with three caws instead of with a long drawn out caw, as I said it did."

"Caw, caw!" began the crow, and the cheese fell right into Mr. Fox's open mouth. He gobbled it down in a second and then trotted off through the woods, laughing to think how easily he had fooled Mr. Crow."

"But it happened that Mr. Fox had made a mistake, clever as he thought himself."

"The cheese which the crow had stolen had been fixed by the housewife for the rats that troubled her greatly. She had only laid it in the window for a minute before she took it to the cellar to put in some dark corner to tempt a rat. Inside of the cheese was poison, and when Mr. Fox swallowed it he began to feel dreadfully ill. By the time the crow came along looking for his cheese the fox was too ill to speak. It took a long time for him to get well, and now I don't know whether he hates cheese or crows the most."

Fined By Mayor.
Arthur Sebring, 18, George Allen, 20, and Leo Frazier, 21, were arrested last night on a charge of petit larceny, it being alleged that these boys were members of the "beer party" which stole a keg and a case of beer last Saturday afternoon. A Rouse boy, one of the party, was captured at the time, but the others made good their escape. Each was fined $5 and costs by the mayor. Frazier paid the fine and was dismissed. The others were ordered committed.

A Great Squirrel Hunt.
Since the beginning of the open season for squirrels there have been a number of nice bags reported but it remained for Mr. Raymond Catt of this city to cap the climax. He with his faithful hound dawg went out a few hours Wednesday afternoon and captured, so he claims, 12 of the little animals. He also states that he bagged several very fine turkeys. His friends, however, offset these claims by saying that the squirrel supper promised has failed to materialize, and consequently are in doubt as to the real worth of the day's bag. Here's hoping, though that his statements are a fact and that it is not similar to some of his fish tales.

WHEN WOMAN'S WORK IS DONE.
Somebody said, "Woman's work is never done." Anything that emancipates her from this form of slavery is hailed with joy. This is the reason for the constantly increasing popularity of "Easy Task Soap," the hard, white, pure laundry soap, that does half the work of wash-day by itself. Add to this the fact that it positively does not rot or streak the clothes, that it launders lace linens, flannels, silks, bedding, table cloths and all fabrics perfectly, and you will understand why it should be in your house right away.

The Men Who Succeed
As heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success today demands health. To all is to fail. It's utterly folly for a man to endure a weak, run down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvan, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, live troubles, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at F. D. Hall's.

CARE OF CHILDREN'S HAIR.
Not until recently have lots of mothers realized the importance of paying special attention to the children's hair. Since medical examination has been going on in the schools, it has developed that many children do not have their heads washed more than a few times a year. This neglect prejudices the growth of the hair as the child becomes older and in a man causes baldness and in a woman, thin, scraggly, falling hair. Toilet and laundry soaps should be avoided in washing the hair, and we strongly recommend to every mother the use of Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream, which is made from the private formula of Kate Seaton Mason, the noted English Hair Specialist.

It is a pure antiseptic tonic wash for the hair which cleanses perfectly and promotes the growth at the same time. This is the preparation which has had such great success in New York, London and Paris, and it is only 25c. a tube, enough for several shampoos.

If you try it and don't like it we will return your money. Frank D. Hall, druggist.

TO PAY PENSIONS DIRECT TO THE OLD VETERANS

Uncle Sam's pensioners residing in Licking county have received notices from the pension department, advising them that after the first of the year all pensions will be paid direct to the old veterans, without the usual formality of making out vouchers, as has been the custom in the past.

This action is taken in conformity with the provisions of the new pension bill passed at the late session of congress. It abolishes a large number of pension offices over the country.

Heretofore the vouchers were mailed to the veterans and they were required to appear before a notary public or some court attaché to have the papers properly executed. These papers were then sent to the Columbus office, where the check was made out and returned to the pensioner by mail.

Under the new pension law, the checks will be mailed direct to the old soldiers and the money will be available at once.

This method will be much more simple than the older method and will be more convenient to the pensioners. Many of them are feeble with age or disease and are subjected to much hardship in being compelled to appear before a notary each quarter.

Incidentally the government saves the expense of maintaining pension offices in various states.

FIRST THINGS

The first to discover that the pressure of the atmosphere varies with the height above sea level was Blaise Pascal, the French natural philosopher and author, who made this announcement on Sept. 19, 1648, just 264 years ago today. The discovery opened the way for the measurement of the heights of mountains by means of the barometer. The fact of the pressure of the atmosphere was the discovery of Galileo in 1564, and was first demonstrated by Torricelli, who invented the barometer, in 1642. Five years later Pascal, by use of the barometer, found that the pressure varied with height. The density and electricity of the air were later determined by Boyle; its composition by Priestley, Scheele, Lavoisier and Cavendish, and its relation to light and sound by Booke, Newton and Derham. Before modern science cast light on the subject, little was known of the atmosphere that envelops the earth, and that little was wrong. Many of the ancients declared air to be self-existent deity, and the first cause of all created things.

FAIR PLAY.

One of the hardest things to wash is a mechanic's shirt. It accumulates dust and grime and grease, naturally, and the effort to get that dust and grime and grease out with ordinary soap is something tremendous. "Easy Task Soap," however, does half the work for you and makes the other half easier. Its duty is to get after the dirt and take it out. You don't have to rub and scrub over the tub. Tell your grocer you want it. Five cents a cake—same price as poor soaps.

First Punch Decided Two of Papke- Ketchel Bouts

Billy Papke first, mingled with Stanley Ketchel, the "Michigan Assassin," in Milwaukee, on June 4, 1908. He lost that battle in the first round, although he stayed the full ten innings. The Illinois Thunderbolt had no sooner entered the ring than the boy from the West sent over his south paw in a terrible punch to the jaw, sending Billy sprawling to the ground. Billy, with a look of surprise on his face, promptly came up again, but the blow had deprived him of all of his steam. He slam-banged his way through the remaining nine rounds, but his head was out of commission and he scarcely knew whether he was a foot or a horseback. That slugger match was decidedly Ketchel's bout, but the supporters of the Illinois boy declared he had lost on a fluke and clamored for another chance. This time Vernon, Cal., was the scene of the battle and Sept. 7, 1908, was the date. This was Labor Day and a big crowd filled Tom Carey's arena. The middleweight title now clearly rested between Papke and Ketchel and the victor could rightfully declare his right to it.

Tens of thousands of dollars were wagered on the result. Papke was returned the winner by exactly the same methods that Ketchel had used in Milwaukee. The Illinois boy barely touched Stanley's glove and then sent hard right to Ketchel's jaw. The Assassin went down like a log and the referee had tolled off seven before he struggled to his feet. Papke sent over another and this time Jim Jeffries, who was acting as referee, counted nine before Ketchel was able to stagger up. As Papke had been defeated with the first blow in the first Ketchel-Papke battle, so was Ketchel now given a dose of his own medicine. Like one in a dream, Stanley fought on, dogged and determined, smeared with blood and with one optic on the blink. In the 12th round Jeffries put an end to the slaughter and Papke became recognized middleweight champion of the world. He did not long retain the title, for in the following November, at Colma, he was knocked out by Ketchel in the eleventh round. For a fourth time they met, July 5, 1909, also at Colma, and Ketchel won in twenty rounds. Upon the death of Ketchel, Billy again laid claim to the title, but he had lost his old-time form and could not come back.

WANDERLUST LAD STARTS ON LONG HOMeward TRIP

"Joe" has left for his beloved Hungary, Pennsylvania Train No. 10 at 8:30 this morning carried "Joe" eastward to New York, his point of departure, but this time "Joe" was not making one of his accustomed flights minus the parental sanction—quite to the contrary, he was accompanied by Joseph, Sr., his father, and Mary, his mother.

"Joe" has enjoyed, or rather suffered, a rather checkered career, for a lad of only fourteen years. It began some months ago.

Joseph and Mary Isvak, the parents of "Joe," lived in Jefferson street during February of this year. The father was a laborer and from his earnings the thrifty Mary had saved a considerable sum of money.

Out of harmony with American ideas and American methods and not entirely understanding Americans themselves, Joseph Jr., longed to return to his fatherland—to the "old country," but the parents refused, and in his home-sickness, "Joe" became desperate.

Appropriating the sum of $100, which his mother had saved, he prepared to return to Hungary alone. In this city he purchased a pair of long trousers, an overcoat of sweeping lines, and a cap, originally constructed for a head much larger than his and arrayed himself for his trip. Later, he bought a suit case, and completed his equipment by the purchase of a rifle.

Shunning the more traveled paths, he went to Granville and bought a ticket to New York via the Toledo and Ohio Central. On reaching Granville he assumed all the airs of the finished traveler, hiring a small boy to carry his suit case to the station, for which service he tipped the youthful porter five cents.

About this time Probate Officer James Sheridan was notified of his deeds, and locating the trail wired Columbus police officials to watch for him.

A detective went to the union station.

"Hello, Joe," said the sleuth to a lad who answered "Joe's" description.

"How'd you know my name was Joe?" countered the lad, and the same was up.

"Joe" was brought back to Newark and later sent to the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster, where he remained until yesterday.

A short time ago the father and mother of the Hungary-hungry lad decided to return to Budapest, and forces were set in action to secure his release, that he might accompany them. This was finally accomplished and yesterday Officer Sheridan went to Lancaster and brought "Joe" back to his parents.

This morning the little family was at the railroad station bright and early, eager to start on the long journey to the home land.

"Will you ever come back to America, Joe?" queried Officer Sheridan.

"No," replied "Joe" fervently, as he climbed aboard the New York train.

CALL SPECIALIST FOR CONSULTATION

'Squire George W. Horton, who lately returned from a three weeks' vacation and rest in Illinois, is reported to be in a very serious condition due to a complication of diseases.

The 'Squire has been in ill-health for months and it was hoped that his recent vacation would result in a marked improvement in his condition, but since his return he has steadily lost ground.

Today a Columbus specialist was called to this city for consultation with the attending physician.

NATURE'S ESSENCE...Extracted From Forest Plants.

Nature's laws are perfect, but disease follows if these laws are not obeyed. Go straight to nature for the cure, to the forest; there are mysteries here that are fathom for you. Take the bark of the wild-cherry tree, the root of manzanita, stone, Oregon grape root, queen's root, bloodroot and golden seal, make a scientific, non-alcoholic extract of them with just the right proportions and you have

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It took Dr. Pierce, with the assistance of two learned chemists, eight years of hard work experimenting to make this pure glyceric extract and alternative of the greatest efficiency and without the use of a particle of alcohol.

Just the sort of remedy you need to make rich, red blood, and cure that lassitude and feeling of nerve exhaustion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery bears the stamp of Pius's Approval and has sold more largely in the past forty years than any other blood purifier and stomach tonic.

"Some time ago I got out of health—my stomach seemed to be the seat of the trouble," writes Mr. E. Williams, of Belleville, Kan. "I commenced to doctor with all the doctors at home as well as with other specialists on stomach and digestive organs. None seemed to do any good—in fact, most of the medicines did me harm. Finally, I wrote to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., who replied, stating that I had liver complaint with indigestion and constipation, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets."

"The 'Discovery' and 'Pellets' have put me on my feet again," seemed to be just what I needed. I could not have recovered without them."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for liver ills.

REV. J. A. BENNETT ACCEPTS A CALL FROM W. VIRGINIA

At a meeting of the Fifth street Baptist church members Wednesday evening, the resignation of the pastor, Rev. Joseph A. Bennett, was reluctantly accepted, and at the same time announcement was made that Mr. Bennett had accepted a call from the Long Reach Baptist church of Sistersville, W. Va. The resignation is to take effect Nov. 1, at which time Mr. Bennett will begin his pastorate at Sistersville. This is a town of 5000 inhabitants located 47 miles south of Wheeling.

Dr. Bennett is well known in Sistersville, having taken part in a series of meetings there several years ago. He has preached a great many times at the Sistersville church and when it became known to the members of that church that he would probably leave Newark, a call was immediately sent to him and has now been accepted. The Sistersville church is a new edifice and the parsonage is also new. The Sunday school numbers 550 members, while the men's Bible class has a membership of 150 and the young men's Bible class a membership of 60. It is with a great deal of regret that Dr. Bennett leaves Newark, as he is recognized as one of the most able pulpits orators in this section of the country and has done much not only for his own church, but in the upbuilding of the city of Newark. He has always taken a prominent part in public affairs and when he leaves the city it will be with the best wishes of the entire community.

ing, which a man would forfeit if he joined a union."

"Rats! Go tell that to the marines," was the answer the Governor gave to those who thought trusts necessary for economy and efficiency.

Governor Wilson paid warm tribute to the character of President Taft at the parade grounds in Minneapolis.

"I don't believe any man who knows the fact can question the integrity or the purpose of the man who now presides in the White House," said Governor Wilson. "If he had got into bad company it was no fault of his. He did not choose the company; it was before him."

"If he has taken my advice, it was because they were nearest to him and he did not hear any one else. That is the reason why I should rather hear the advice of a crowd like this than the advice of a Cabinet."

In urging the subordination of the personal side of the campaign the Governor said he would not be one of those, who if defeated, would say the people had made a mistake. Privately, he added, he might think so, but he would not say so.

"I am a good enough sport to abide by your decision," said the Governor, amid cheers.

DIED WEDNESDAY

Fredericktown, O., Sept. 19.—Daniel Struble, one of the leading citizens of Fredericktown, and Knox county, died Wednesday at his residence in this place of organic heart trouble. Mr. Struble had been confined to his bed for several weeks.

The deceased was 84 years of age and was born in New Jersey. At an early age he settled with his parents on a farm just west of here.

Mr. Struble had been very active in business here for over 60 years. About 42 years ago he established the Struble Bank and was president of the institution at the time of his death.

He is survived by one son, Ralph Y. Struble, who has been in charge of the bank for some time past.

But there isn't the slightest danger of free trade in the United States, because we have one of the most expensive central governments in the world, one of the most extravagant central governments in the world and our chief resources for supporting it must, I dare say, always within our time be duties collected at the ports. But the interesting thing about the tariff is that the most efficient protection does not produce any revenue worth mentioning; that the higher you put your rates, the less you collect at the ports, and some gentlemen thrive under a tariff so high that there are practically no importations at all."

How the United States Steel Corporation incidentally would benefit by the plank in the Progressive party platform proposing regulation of trusts by a Federal commission was argued by Governor Woodrow Wilson in his speeches as he passed from Sioux City, Iowa, to Minneapolis and St. Paul yesterday.

It was at Sioux Falls, S. D., that the Democratic nominee first drew attention to the origin of the Progressive plank for handling the trust problem.

"The method now proposed of regulating the trusts was suggested in the inquiry by the House of Representatives into the Steel Trust, and it was suggested by Mr. Gary and Mr. George W. Perkins," he said. "They have thought this thing out. It may be, for all I know, that they honestly think that is the way to safeguard the business of this country. But whatever they think, this they know, that it will save the United States Steel Corporation from the necessity of doing its business better than its competitors."

"Moreover, I have this to say to the workmen: Carry out the plan of Mr. Gary and Mr. Perkins and you will have given a control in the market for labor which will suit these gentlemen perfectly. They don't want competitors in the market for labor, because new competitors will mean new wage scales, and these are the very men, and almost the only men, who have successfully opposed union labor in the United States, and shut it out of their shops and bribed it to be content to the shut-out by all sorts of benevolent schemes of profit-shar-

The best suit you ever saw at $25

Look at the picture. All the new style tendencies charmingly expressed. The longer coat—the five button cutaway effect—The fashionable silhouette. Yet not a single touch you could call “extreme.” And then—look at the suit itself. When you examine it closely, notice the fine material it is made of—the superior quality of the lining. When you see how carefully it is finished in every little detail—You will understand why the makers so liberally guarantee your satisfaction for two full seasons. But—you will be especially pleased with the price. Thirty-five dollars would seem cheap to you for this suit. And it will cost you $10 less. At $25.00 which is this suit's price—you have really saved $10.00. Saved it right at the season's start. This is one of the many fall Wooltex models. If your new garment be Wooltex—whether coat or suit or skirt—You are sure of its style (Madame Savaris has supervised that). You are sure it will stay good looking (that is guaranteed). You are sure of splendid value (your own careful examination will tell you that). And you can try them on—examine them—buy them right in your own city at

LYON MEETING LAST EVENING WELL ATTENDED

Over four hundred people from all parts of the city met at the Central Church of Christ last night to get inspiration for the great meetings that are now so close at hand. Rev. W. D. Ward took charge of the meeting, and after a short song and prayer service, the meeting was turned into a testimonial service. The spirit of this part of the service showed plainly that a large part of the people of Newark are awake to their spiritual needs and are ready to give their very best effort to this great undertaking. It was a time when great optimism and hopefulness for the future was expressed. The interest was so great that it was really hard to change from this part of the meeting to what followed.

The address by Mr. Fred E. Holloway of the Lyon party showed clearly the great problem that is before every community in this day and age. He showed how parental respect and authority were greatly lacking and how important it is for people to look the problem squarely in the face and seek means to meet it. Mr. Holloway's appeal and the appeal of these meetings is for a return of respect for God and His word.

Over a hundred people remained for an after meeting for personal workers which was addressed by Mr. Holloway. Great interest was here manifested. Rev. C. G. Hazlett requests all ushers to be on hand at the Tabernacle at 6:30 Friday evening to get their positions for the evening meeting.

CAPTURED MAN AFTER A SEARCH OF NINE MONTHS

Heavy Underwood, an employee of a portable sawmill outfit, was arrested early Thursday morning by Chief of Police Blizars and Patrolman Burke after a search for the man lasting nine months on a charge of beating a board bill.

The arrest was made just east of the city as the officers were on their way to the site of the saw mill. Underwood and his employer were en route to the city and passed the officers in an automobile. Patrolman Burke recognized the man and stopped the machine and pulled the rig. Underwood submitted to arrest without protest and accompanied the officers to Newark. Last February Mrs. Margaret Vaughan filed an affidavit against Underwood charging that he defrauded her out of $25 alleged to be due for board. The expenses incurred in the search for Underwood were all charged up against him and when he pleaded guilty to the charge in police court, the costs in the case with his indebtedness to his former land-lady amounted to $18. Underwood paid the amount and was allowed to go.

NEWARK BOOSTERS ARE ADVERTISING THE COMING FAIR

Five automobiles furnished by A. R. Lindorf, M. J. Reese, O. C. Jones, Philip Vogelsmeier and J. M. Farmer carried a party of sixteen county fair boosters to Kirtersville, Baltimore, Basil, Lancaster, Pleasantville, New Salem, Thorntown, Glenford, Yost, Jacksontown, Hebron, Millersport, Somerset, Union Station, Granville. Both Lancaster papers printed Reynoldsburg, Wagram, Elma, Pataskala, Oultville and other points Wednesday. These towns and the country roads and bridges were supplied with advertising inviting the people to come to Newark Oct. 1-4, to see the fair, the daily aeroplane flights, the big parade, candidates for governor, etc. Both Lancaster papers printed long notices yesterday, calling attention to the visit of the Newark party. On Thursday two gaily decorated autos carried Newark men to Mt. Vernon, Johnstown, Croton, Homer, Centerville and other points, while two other cars took the boosters to Zanesville and intermediate points. Cars today were donated by Geo. B. Sprague and E. M. Baugher. Two other cars were engaged by the advertising committee from a local garage. Yesterday's car service was donated by Messrs. Lindorf, Reese, Farmer, Jones and Vogelsmeier. The coming fair is being advertised as never before. Between now and Oct. 1, the newspapers within a radius of 30 miles will be used to further advertise the coming event. Newark is preparing to decorate, to give a big parade and to make all visitors welcome. It is time now to arrange for the parade. Get your banners and floats ready now. One hundred dollars will be given in prizes for those making the best appearance in the parade on the morning of Oct. 2.

FOUR-LEAF CLOVER PROVED UNLUCKY FOR MRS. DALEN

Four-leafed clovers hold no charm for Mrs. Minna Dalen of West Main street, who yesterday narrowly escaped serious injury when she fell from the second story of her home. A basket of clothes at the foot of the stairs proved to be even more lucky for the clover leaves at least brought her several painful bruises. It all happened this way: Mrs. Dalen had been enjoying an hour's rest in a swing in her back yard. On her way to the house she chanced to see a four-leafed clover, and with visions of impending good fortune she picked it, carrying it with her into the house. She went to the second floor of the house immediately, using a rear stairway, and after picking up some soiled clothing, returned to the main floor, via the front stairway this time. Her foot caught in the hem of her skirt just as she reached the top of the stairs, and Mrs. Dalen hit all the high spots and a few of the low ones on the way down stairs. She picked herself out of a large clothes basket, well filled with soiled clothes, which had been left on a small landing, about four steps from the bottom. This served to break her fall, and she was able to resume her household duties last night.

Secure Postage Stamps, Small Sum in Change and Draughtsman's Order.

Little stuff of negotiable value is kept in the big office safe, and this is not locked, merely being a protection against fire for books and valuable papers. The safe was rifled of all stamps and change. A number of checks were also taken, but payment on these has been stopped and they will be of no value to the thieves.

The company will be put to considerable trouble in straightening out the accounts with customers whose checks were among those stolen. Aside from this annoyance, the loss is not heavy.

The matter was reported to the police department and an investigation is being made.

From the Rugg Company the robbers went to the Welch-Scott Company, where they forced an entrance by breaking a window. A draughtsman's outfit was taken and all the available change they could find, which amounted to about 50 cents.

THE BIRTHDAY CALENDAR

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

"Look before you leap" is a good motto for you. Also you are warned not to allow small injuries, real or fabled, to draw your attention away from your main interests.

Those born today will be headstrong and unthinking and will need firm government if they are to become successful. Left to themselves their naturally brilliant talents will waste themselves in quarreling and criticism.

WHEN YOUR HAIR BRUSHES OUT

Your hair is as sensitive as your skin—even more so. It stands up under heavy hairs, curling irons, and diseases of the scalp, etc.—But there is a limit.

When you comb and brush your hair in the morning, watch for the "TRAILERS" that turn grey, fall out, and comb out with the first morning brush.

You MUST know that there's something wrong. If your hair was in good health, it wouldn't fall out, nature never intended that. There is something wrong at the root of things—the hair needs a tonic—a restorer. When you are sick you take medicine. That is your first thought. Its turning grey, falling out, are both ways the hair has of "complaining of illness." It can't do it in any other way. Do YOUR PART. Use HAY'S HAIR HEALTH.
